

Exhibit B

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 08/05/2019

On June 11, 2019, SA Matt McElhiney obtained a PDF file from Facebook pursuant to a federal search warrant issued on May 22, 2019, containing account information for Facebook user ID 100013654273480.

A review of the PDF file revealed that it contained 16,544 pages. Page 1 indicated that the account had been deleted on June 2, 2019; however, historical account information was provided as a result of previously executed preservation requests on the account.

Pages 20 and 8194 indicated that the account was registered on October 4, 2016 and was active at the time the first preservation request was made on February 9, 2019 but was subsequently deactivated on April 15, 2019. The name on the account was listed as Streezt NW. The current city was listed as Seattle, Washington. The account identifier for the account was streezy.nw. The date range of the collection was January 1, 2010 to May 22, 2019. The account was associated with the cell phone number(s) 360-515-9690, which was verified on August 21, 2017 at 05:42:02 UTC, 360-559-1596, which was verified on December 27, 2018 at 01:25:11 UTC, and 360-932-2598. Status Updates contained multiple photos of Joseph Sam.

Unified messages for the account included communications between the following Facebook users:

1. Sharon Arellano (100002219689261) - A string of messages discussing Sam's location following the the assault and robbery. During the conversation, Sam requests a ride from Arellano and details his location near an coffee shop and taco truck on the Tulalip reservation.
2. Mariah Boudrieau (100026598294104) - A string of messages following the assault and robbery discussing meeting up. During the conversation, Sam provides his current phone number and states that he still needs his share. Specifically, the messages included the following communications:
